THE SPEAKERS' SERIES

Zanana Akande

Community advocate and former MPP & cabinet minister, Ms. Akande, will present her views on social change, community development and diversity. She has worked towards social justice by addressing education, communications & the media, feminism, race relations and social change. She is the recipient of numerous awards including the Constance E Hamilton award for her work addressing equity issues in the community.

Join us at the historic and beautiful University Club of Toronto for the first Toronto Symphony Volunteer Committee "Friendraiser", an opportunity to invite and meet new people interested in the cultural aspects of our city and in particular, the Toronto Symphony Orchestra.
