

FINE ART AUCTION of May 25-27, 2018 at the Women's Art Association of Canada, 23 Prince Arthur Avenue, Toronto.

Terms and Conditions of Sale

REGISTRATION

All bidders must register for a paddle. Paddle registration will be available until the end of the Live Auction, Sunday, May 27, 2018. You may pre-register online at <http://tsvc.ca/art-auction> until 12:00 p.m. local Toronto time, Friday, May 25, 2018, or you may register in person from May 25-27, 2018 during the Previews and/or Live Auction. Bidders who have pre-registered must still check-in at the registration desk to pick-up their paddles in order to bid.

ABSENTEE BIDS

Absentee bids will be accepted and executed if received in advance of the auction by email, mail, or fax at the offices of the Toronto Symphony Volunteer Committee in writing no later than 12:00 p.m. local Toronto time, Friday, May 25, 2018. Absentee bidders may also submit advance bids at the auction previews May 25-27. Absentee bidders are kindly requested to complete the absentee bidding form. Credit card information will be requested and validated. Absentee bids submitted to the Art Auction in writing for execution at or below the specified price, will be vetted and executed by the auctioneer for the convenience of bidders. Bids will be executed and will not exceed the bid amount per lot specified on the absentee bidding form. In the event that received absentee bids on a lot are for identical amounts and at auction those absentee bids are the highest bids for that lot, the lot shall be knocked down to the person whose absentee bid (for the relevant amount) was received first. All bids will be executed and are accepted subject to these "Terms and Conditions of Sale." The auctioneer, the Toronto Symphony Orchestra and the Toronto Symphony Volunteer Committee or its staff or members, shall not be responsible for failing to execute such bids or for errors relating to the execution of such bids or following any other instructions of any absentee bidder.

The art listed in the catalogue, as may be amended by sale room notice or announcement, are being offered for sale by the Toronto Symphony Orchestra and the Toronto Symphony Volunteer Committee for its own account. These Terms and Conditions of Sale constitute the complete terms and conditions on which all of the art and related items will be offered for sale.

TELEPHONE BIDDING

You may bid by telephone during the auction by completing the absentee bidding form. Your request for telephone bidding must be received in advance of the auction, in writing, by no later than 12:00 p.m. local Toronto time, Friday, May 25, 2018. Telephone bidders may also submit advance bids at the auction previews May 25-27. A representative of the auction will acknowledge your request for telephone bidding. Credit card information will be requested and validated. Any failure to execute bids or any mistake in doing so cannot be the responsibility of the auctioneer, the Toronto Symphony Orchestra or of the Toronto Symphony Volunteer Committee or its staff or members.

CONDITIONS OF THE ART

All art sold at the sale shall be at the buyer's risk. The Toronto Symphony Orchestra and the Toronto Symphony Volunteer Committee sells all art exactly as it is and gives no warranty of any kind as to any of the art, nor shall they be liable in any manner for any error in description, faults, or defects. All warranties and conditions implied by law are hereby excluded. No person shall have recourse against the auctioneer, the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, or the Toronto Symphony Volunteer Committee or its staff or members, for any irregularity or illegality in the sales, or in the conduct of the sale, or of the art. All art donations for this auction have been professionally appraised.
